

Webinar Description

My job application process in Germany - new trends and insights how to master a successful application

PWN in collaboration with Jobcentric would like to offer an exclusive for members only webinar on the topic of job application in Germany.

You are currently looking for a new job opportunity in Germany or you are thinking of a career switch? If yes, then a 60 Min webinar is a good investment to explore new trends in the job application and recruitment in Germany and gain new insights on how to improve your CV and application documents.

Join us on 28th September at 7.30 pm for a PWN exclusive for members only webinar

What will you learn:

- job application strategies that work best
- end-to-end application process in Germany from applying to the job interview
- how to modify your job application to increase your chances of “getting noticed”
- latest recruitment trends in Germany
- which steps do you need to undertake to master your job application

About Jobcentric:

Jobcentric (www.jobcentric.de) is a venture by two enthusiasts, Sonali Rao and Viara Richter who after longstanding experience in the corporate world decided to create a platform to support international professionals residing in Germany. Our aim is to support highly skilled professionals create a niche and thereby stand out in the competitive job market and guide them through their journey of a successful career story in Germany.